After School Activities

Mr. Milena is organizing the first session of After School Activities which will start on 24 August. If you are willing to offer an activity, please contact her. The students of AICS would be very grateful for any additional activities that are offered. Thank you for your consideration.

Change in Newsletter Delivery

In order to save a little bit of paper, this year we will give out one copy of the weekly newsletter per family. If you would like to designate the child who should be given the family's copy, please inform Yodit at the Reception.
