COMMUNITY NEWS:

Art

Under the direction of Miss Kokob Beyene, AICS students created works of art for submission to a competition entitled, “I Dream Therefore I Am,” organized by the Delegation of the European Commission. Ms. Paola Amadei, Head of Delegation invited the school to participate.

On Friday, 2 October the winners of the competition were recognized at an award ceremony held at the National Confederation of Eritrean Workers. It is a great pleasure to inform you of the following:

Million Abraham

Grade 11

3rd Prize Winner in Youth Category (Students 11-18 years old)

Congratulations, Million.

After School Activities

After School Activities end today. Thanks to Ms. Cat Mihowich for organizing this session and to all who offered activities. The next set of activities will begin on 26 October.

Vision Test

Nurse Natsnet began vision tests this week with AICS students. She will be checking the eyesight of all.

AISA Conference

Next week, I will leave on Wednesday, 14 October, to travel to Lusaka, Zambia for the annual Association of International Schools in Africa (AISA) Conference. AICS has been a member of this organization for a number of years. Participation serves to keep us informed of developments in international schools throughout Africa. During the three school days that I will be away, Dan Franch will be in charge.
